For Over Sixty Years

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used for over 60 years by millions of mothers for their children when teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, always all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

Marriage Postponed.

The marriage of Dr. I. D. Best and Miss Janie Flenniken, which was to have taken place to-day, has been postponed on account of the continued sickness of the latter. Her many friends will be pleased to know that she is gradually improving.

Uniform Entertainment.

New uniforms have just been bought for the base ball team. For paying for these an entertainment will be given at the Thespian Hall one evening next week. This entertainment will be largely musical and is sure to prove a popular hit. A full program will be printed in the next issue. Give the team the proper encouragement by a full house.

Preparing to Build.

The material for the new dormitory at Mt. Zion is now being placed on the grounds and work on the building is expected to begin at once, so that it may be ready by September 1. Material is also being placed on the grounds for the new cottage that Mr. Jno. B. Stevenson is going to build on his lot on Zion street.

Postmasters Organize.

There was a meeting of the 4th class postmasters of Fairfield county here Wednesday. Only 7 officers were represented. A postmaster's league for this county was organized. F. E. Hood, Blythwood, was elected president; T. H. Richardson, Nelson, vice president; and M. B. Martin, Luke, secretary and treasurer. The object of this league is for an exchange of ideas among the 4th class postmasters to secure better facilities for such offices.

A Residence Burned.

Thursday night about 11 o'clock the house occupied by Mr. W. A. Hood on Vanderhorst street was completely destroyed by fire, which is supposed to have originated from a defective flue. The house belonged to Mr. J. L. Richmond and was insured for $700. Mr. Hood's furniture, a part of which was saved, for $400. The closely adjoining residences of Mr. Richmond and Mr. Dickey were only saved by good fighting on the part of the fire company. Mr. Hood is now occupying the house on Sioux street recently vacated by Mr. Thos. Phillips.

Winthrop Scholarships.

By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that the examination for the award of the scholarships in Winthrop College and for the admission of new students will be held at the court house Friday, July 7, at 9 a. m. There is one vacant scholarship from Fairfield county to be filled at this examination. Those young ladies who expect to stand this examination should send to President D. B. Johnson, Rock Hill, S. C., for an application blank for beneficiary scholarships in Winthrop. This blank contains full information as to the conditions of this examination and the subject upon which the applicant is to be examined.

Death of Mrs. J. L. Bryson.

The announcement yesterday morning of the death the night before of Mrs. J. L. Bryson was a great surprise to this community. While Mrs. Bryson has been in bad health for several years, it was thought that she was a good deal better. She had been up that evening and had retired early without complaining. About eleven o'clock Mr. Bryson awoke and found that she had suddenly passed away. Mrs. Bryson is survived by her husband and one son, James, and by the following brothers and sisters: Thomas W. Lauderdale, New York; Mrs. W. T. Blakely, Ora; George R. Lauderdale, Mrs. J. O. Boag, and Mrs. J. W. Bolic, Winnsboro. The funeral service will be held at the A. R. P. Church and the interment will be in the A. R. P. cemetery. The hour has not yet been fixed. The bereaved family have the sympathy of many friends in their affliction.

Winnsboro vs Blackstock.

The Winnsboro and Blackstock teams crossed bats on the college green Wednesday afternoon. For a while the game was right interesting, until it was proven that Blackstock was not in it, as was shown by the final score of 21 to 6. The Blackstock team has some good players and with more practice would put up an interesting game. The batteries were: Winnsboro, Center and Elliott; Blackstock, Dowling and Blain; struck out by Dowling 8; Center 12. Robert Gooding umpired the game to the entire satisfaction of all. The attendance was good.

The home team contains some excellent material and with practice will make it interesting for any amateur team. The boys appreciate the fact that the attendance was good, as this makes it possible for them to play ball without having to be bothered with making up deficits. This team is worthy of every encouragement and should be given such support as to make it go. See the notice of the entertainment the boys are going to give one evening next week to secure funds for their uniforms.

Ridgeway Items

At 9:30 o'clock on Wednesday morning the Baptist church was filled with a host of friends to witness the marriage of Miss Stella Rosborough to Mr. Thomas Nelson of Kershaw. The church was artistically decorated in green and white bamboo, asparagus fern and other potted plants lending beauty and grace for the occasion.

Mendelssohn's ever sweet wedding march under the skillful touch of Mrs. Geo. Moore signaled the coming of the bridal party. The ushers, Mr. W. Herbert Ruff, Jr., and Mr. Young of Camden, preceded the bride with her maid of honor, Miss Annie Rosborough. They were joined at the altar by the groom and his best man, Dr. Jas. R. DesPortes. Rev. G. P. White of the Baptist church performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a stylish and becoming shirtwaist suit of white linen embroidery, a dainty white hat with trimming of white rose buds. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses. The maid of honor wore a sweet suit of white lawn and embroidery with a white hat; her flowers were pink roses and ferns.

Miss Rosborough is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Rosborough and is one of Ridgeway's best loved girls. Her many friends will miss her in town and Mr. Nelson is to be congratulated on winning such a prize. Mr. Nelson is not a stranger here and his pleasant genial manner has won many friends.

Miss Sarah Coleman and Mr. Wesley Stearns were married at the home of the bride's mother Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Mills officiating. Only the immediate family were present. Mr. and Mrs. Stearns left on the afternoon train for the mountains of North Carolina.

Mrs. W. S. Hogan entertained the Ladies' club on Tuesday afternoon. A Timrod programme had been arranged for the afternoon. Mrs. Hogan, after the business was over, served delicious chocolate ice cream and cake. Mrs. John N. LeMaster will entertain the next meeting.

Miss Virginia Black is with her sister, Mrs. H. W. DesPortes. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips of Anderson are with relatives in town. Mrs. Olin Sawyer of Georgetown is visiting Mrs. R. H. Brown.

Dr. William Woodruff of Pickens is with his sister, Mrs. W. S. Hogan.

Miss Robertson Weds.

The following marriage notice which appeared in the State of June 24 in the correspondence from McBee will be read with interest by the friends and relatives of the bride in this county.

Miss Carolina Clark Robertson and Mr. Frank Wilhelm Veto were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. L. D. Robertson, by Rev. W. P. Witsell of Columbia. Quite a number of the friends of the bride and groom were present. Many nice and valuable presents were received. The happy couple left on the 12 o'clock train for points in western North Carolina, where they go to visit for a few days the friends and relatives of the groom, after which they will return to their home in McBee.
